Subject: URGENT: Copyright infringement claim

University of Central Missouri has received a claim, copied below, that material you provided via university equipment or university network connections infringes copyright.

As required by law, university agents have removed or will remove materials or access to materials or activities.

If you believe this claim to be mistaken--for example, you do have permission to use the materials or claim exemption under the four Fair Use principles--or if you believe the material is misidentified with you--then you may appeal this claim and file a counter claim.
